Digital Privacy Practice

The Credit Union is committed to safeguading information about members and visitors to the Credit Union's website. The Credit Union's Privacy Notice explains our collection, use, retention and security of consumer information and applies to the Credit Union's products and services offered for consumer (not business) purposes. Online activities of consumers may be subject to both the Credit Union's Privacy Policy and the Credit Union's Digital Privacy Practices.

These Digital Privacy Practices explain our privacy practices regarding the information we collect about you when you visit or make transactions on our website.

How we may use information:

We may collect information during your website visit in order to provide you with offers and information. We may also use the information we collect from you online to contact you via telephone, e-mail or other means regarding offers of poducts and services that may be of interest to you.

How we collect information online:

Cookies: Our web server may write a “cookie”, which is a small file, to your hard drive. We may use cookies to enhance your online experience, to facilitate your use of our website and to collect site-visitation statistics. If you are uncomfortable with the use of cookie technology, you can set your browser to refuse cookies.

Tracer Technologies: Tracer, or spotlighting technologies may also be used by the Credit Union or its service providers. We may use tracers to determine whether you viewed certain advertisements or received or opened e-mails from the Credit Union.

Information Storage:

The Credit Union may store the information collected during your visit in an electronic database. The Credit Union uses security measures to protect against loss, misuse and alteration of data stored in our systems.

Third Party Websites:

This website may contain links to third-party sites that you may find useful. These sites have their own privacy policies. Links to other websites are provided solely as a convenience to you. If you use these links, you will leave the Credit Union's website. We do not have any responsibility for, or control over, any of these sites, their content, or their privacy policies. You should review the privacy policy of any website before you provide any personal or confidential information. We do not endorse or make any representations about other websites, or any information, products, or materials found there, or any results that may be obtained from using them. If you decide to access any third-party link, you do so entirely at your own risk.

Privacy and Children:

The Credit Union respects the privacy of children. We do not knowingly solicit data from children, and we do not knowingly market to children. We will not knowingly collect names or any other personally identifiable information from children. We recognize that protecting children’s identities and privacy online is important and that the responsibility to do so rests with both the online industry and parents.
